

Major Projects Leadership Programme

Objectives

- A 12-month high-level project governance and leadership development programme
- Uplift project delivery capability to attain better project delivery performance and more cost-effective use of public funds

Modules

Oxford Residential

- A 10-day intensive overseas residential study
- Interactive workshops with international project leaders
- Collaboration with government authorities and professional organisations

Master Inspirations

- A series of seminars throughout a 12-month programme
- World-class practitioners to share experiences
- Scholars to conduct case studies

Learning Enrichment

- Tailor-made personal coaching
- Virtual learning
- Professional assessment

International Alumni Network

- Major Projects Leadership Academy (UK)
- Victorian Major Projects Leadership Academy (Australia)

University of Oxford, Saïd Business School

Ranked 1st worldwide for higher education by The Times Higher Education (2018), the University of Oxford is one of the foremost centres of learning, teaching and research. As a department of the University, Oxford Saïd is dedicated to developing the new generation of business leaders and entrepreneurs and conducting research not only into the nature of business, but the connections between business and the wider world. The school is ranked the 1st in the UK for the fifth consecutive year (Financial Times) and as one of the top ten global providers of Executive Education (FT Global Rankings, 2018).

Programme Leader - Prof Bent FLYVBJERG

Bent Flyvbjerg is the first BT Professor and inaugural Chair of Major Programme Management at Saïd Business School. Flyvbjerg serves as advisor and consultant to government and business, including the US and UK governments and several Fortune 500 companies. He has worked on some of the largest projects in the world, on all aspects from front-end planning, delivery, and rescue of failing projects. Flyvbjerg is the most cited scholar in the world in megaproject management, and among the most cited in social science methodology. Flyvbjerg has received numerous honors and awards, including Harvard Business Review's 'Ideas Watch' for the most important new idea to follow and the Project Management Institute's and Project Management Journal's 'Paper of the Year Award.' Flyvbjerg's research has been covered by Science, The New York Times, The New Yorker, The Wall Street Journal, The Economist, The Financial Times, China Daily, The BBC, CNN, Charlie Rose, and many other media.